

External Advertisement for
Program Consultant: Threat Assessment Manager/mental health

The University of Iowa is seeking qualified candidates for the position of Threat Assessment Manager. This position will be responsible for the development, implementation and evaluation of a Threat Assessment program. Additional responsibilities include consultation with units on campus concerned about potential violence, assessment of individuals who may be contemplating aggressive behavior, and training faculty, staff and students in diffusing difficult situations and utilizing the Threat Assessment program. A license in mental health counseling or related field is required. A background and criminal check will be completed prior to hire. To view additional qualifications and to apply for this position, visit the Jobs @ UIOWA website at: <https://jobs.uiowa.edu/> and reference requisition #55551 and complete the online application.

The University of Iowa prohibits discrimination in employment and in its educational programs and activities on the bases of race, national origin, color, creed, religion, sex, age, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity or associational preference. We encourage minorities and women to apply.